ProPak Asia 2018 is the biggest industry event of its kind in Asia. It's Asia's best platform to connect to the regions rapidly expanding processing and packaging industries

Bangkok hosting Asia's largest event 'ProPak Asia' which include the entire food, drink, and pharma processing and packaging supply chain for over 25 years.

It will start again in 2018 and expecting 1,800 exhibiting companies and over 50,000 professionals. With increased participation and nearly 90% of the show floor sold, PKA 2018 has further expanded to include a 9th exhibition hall at the Bangkok International Trade and Exhibition Centre (BITEC).

ProPak Asia 2018 introduces its newest 9th zone "Printech Asia" which is a joint venture with The Italian Machine Manufacturer Association (ACIMGA), organisers of the largest print technology trade fairs in Europe.

Printech Asia is dedicated to covering the latest in converting, package printing, and labelling technologies and services across Asia.

This new zone joins ProPak Asia's existing eight zones which include ProcessingTechAsia, PackagingTechAsia, DrinkTechAsia, PharmaTechAsia, Lab&TestAsia, MaterialsAsia, Coding,Marking&LabellingAsia and Coldchain,Logistics&WarehousingAsia.

According to the organiser UBM BES, ProPak Asia 2018 plans to expand up on topics and displays concerning drink technology, meat processing efficiency, and a burgeoning new host of confectionary packing and processing equipment.

ProPak Asia is also the most international event by virtue of hosting 17 pavilions with 13 separate countries including leading producers of packaging and processing machinery from Germany, Italy, Japan and China.

In total, ProPak Asia hosts companies from over 45 countries representing an estimated 5,000 individual pieces of major packaging and processing equipment.
