The opening of a new office in Malaysia will help the company to accelerate growth in the region.

Nestlé Skin Health, a global leader focused on enhancing quality of life by delivering science-based solutions for skin health, recently announced the opening of a new office in Malaysia, which will help the company to accelerate growth in the region.

The Malaysia affiliate is evidence of the company's commitment to better serve the needs of its customers and consumers while at the same time more effectively tapping the ever-growing potential of the market.

With a population of over 30 million, Malaysia has a dynamic and diversified economy and continues to enjoy robust growth in consumer spending. When it comes to skincare and personal healthcare, sensitive skin care products are experiencing particularly favourable category growth thus confirming the strong market potential for Nestlé Skin Health.
