

"At Smartfuture, we have always focused in making healthcare more affordable & accessible. Our Smart Health Kit rental service is a part of continued effort in this direction. An up-to-date first aid kit will prove to be essential in times of emergency and keep your business safe and legally compliant," said Sumit Khemani, CEO of Smartfuture. "We plan to extend this Health Kit rental service to homes and schools in future."