BioSpectrum
the business of Bio & Health Sciences
ASIA EDITION

Top 20 APAC Country Analysis: Singapore

June 20, 2015 | Analysis | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Top 20 APAC Country Analysis: Singapore

Singapore:Ã?Â

Singapore's bioscience industry has slowed down

Highlights

Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Singapore collaborated with Korea to train and develop skilled talent in innovative medical technologies

Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Medical technology giants in Singapore including Johnson & Johnson, Medtronics,

Ã?Â GE Healthcare and BD joined hands to form a medical technology industry platform to foster growth, innovation and policy development in medtech sector across Asia
Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Troubled British drugmaker GlaxoSmithKline plans to establish new headquarters in Singapore to manage its Asia operations

Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Singapore witnessed growth in medical technology manufacturing by 12.2 percent in the first month of 2015Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Japan-based drug giant, Chugai pharmaceuticals to invest nearly $490 million in itssingapore research and development center in SingaporeÃ?Â

Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Taiwan based Delta Electronics invested in Singapore to develop next-generation infectious disease detection kits in collaboration with A*STAR

Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Singapore and GE Healthcare sealed a five-year technology research and development collaboration agreement with an investment of $20 million to co-develop the next generation of medical technologies
Ã?Â¢Ã¢â??Â¬Ã?Â¢ Singapore launched Diagnostics Development hub to develop local diagnostic products with investment in clinicians, researchers, innovators and entrepreneurs

Ã?Â