

Top 20 APAC Country Analysis: China

June 17, 2015 | Influencers | By BioSpectrum Bureau

Top 20 APAC Country Analysis: China

Singapore:

China In a bid to deepen healthcare reforms and improve health infrastructure, China increased in healthcare subsidies by 19 percent

National Development and Reforms Commission removed the price controls on most pharmaceuticals to reduce government intervention and enhance opportunities

Plans to use competitive bidding for large-scale purchases of certain drugs as a way to guide market pricing and reduce costs of essential drugs

Chinese government cracked down on rampant bribery by pharmaceutical companies that inflated drug prices

Wuxi Biologics began construction of a new $150 million biologics manufacturing facility in China as the world's largest mammalian cell culture manufacturing facility

China aims to implement digital databases for electronic health records and patient information for the entire population by 2020

China Announced to double the number of its general doctors by 2020, trim its public sector and improve technology to fix healthcare system

An experimental Ebola vaccine candidate developed by the Beijing Institute of Biotechnology and the Tianjin CanSino Biotechnology successfully cleared phase I clinical trials